

Please leave the NJ Do Not Call List alone. I will provide my phone number to any business or organization with whom I wish to contact me; I do not want the Federal government meddling with something positive created by the New Jersey State government.